

Waterloo High School Ground Breaking Ceremony March 22, 2007

Honorary "Ground-Breakers," the Waterloo Board of Education, Administration, Staff and community members participated in the Ground Breaking Ceremony for the new Waterloo High School on March 22, 2007.

Financing and building a new high school in Waterloo, Illinois is possible due to the successful efforts of Waterloo CUSD No. 5 and all who helped make the referendum possible. Pictured above with James W. Helton, Superintendent of Waterloo CUSD No. 5 are others who helped to support the project. Dr. Nona Myers, Funding Manager for the Illinois Finance Authority, assisted with the $35,000,000 financing through a Local Government Bond. Shown above are Dr. Nona Myers; David D. Pool, AIA, Design Architects, Inc.; Superintendent Helton; and Chris Collier, Director, Edward D. Jones & Co., L.P.

The Waterloo Community Unit School District No. 5 Board of Education, Administration and Staff are appreciative for the successful referendum that was passed by the community in March of 2006. It will make a tremendous impact on the educational future of students in Waterloo. This referendum was the first in the history of Waterloo to pass on the first attempt.

The Honorable Marc Keihna, Regional Superintendent for Monroe and Randolph Counties, was among the state and community leaders that addressed participants at the Ground Breaking Ceremony.
